- Syrian students have initiated a move for a congress of university students, to be held in Homs at the end of February or the beginning of March 1951. They have approached students in the Jesuit University in Beirut and the American University of Beirut, inviting representatives of those institutions to participate in the Homs congress.
- 2. The congress will attempt to determine the attitude to be adopted by Syrian and Lebanese students in regard to the position to be taken by the two countries toward the Eastern and the Western powers.
